

Dallas Lloyd
Senior Associate

PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Dallas is a Senior Associate at Areté Capital Partners, focused on financial and operational turnarounds. He works alongside executive leadership to stabilize performance, implement critical FP&A initiatives, and guide businesses through complex transitions. He has supported engagements across both sponsor-backed and fiduciary contexts, with a track record of delivering meaningful results in various industries. Dallas also completed the UPenn Wharton Private Equity Program to further strengthen his strategic finance capabilities.

Earlier in his career, Dallas led revenue growth for technology firms in Silicon Valley, gaining valuable experience in the fast-paced tech industry. He consistently ranked as a top individual contributor and later advanced into management, where he coached teams and drove strategic initiatives.

He earned both his bachelor's and master's degrees from Stanford University, where he was a football team captain, two-year starter, and two-time Rose Bowl champion. He also had the privilege of working under Dr. Condoleezza Rice at the Hoover Institution. Dallas lives in New York City and enjoys pickup basketball, golf, and reading a good book in Central Park.
